How to Find Your Perfect Planner

Finding a planner that works for you might seem like you'd have better luck finding a needle in a hay stack.

There are so many planners on the market, but not all are created equal. It all depends on what you're looking for, how and what you want to track, and what extras might keep you coming back and actually using your planner.

So, let's find your perfect planner!

In this guide, you will find a worksheet, prompt guide and suggestions list. Print out the worksheet and fill it out using the prompt guide to help. Once you have honed in on what you're looking for, refer to the suggestions page to find your perfect planner. Have fun!
